

ADELAIDE SOARING CLUB

MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES – SUMMARY

1 Flying members

Enjoy all club rights and privileges. Must be a member of GFA and/or Recreation Aviation Australia to fly any aircraft (glider or powered) operated under the auspices of the club.

2 Flying Spouses of Flying members

Conditions, rights and privileges as for Flying members, but pay a reduced annual subscription.

3 Flying members with concession

Conditions, rights and privileges as for Flying members, but pay a reduced annual subscription if holding specified cards. See office for list of accepted concession cards.

4 Social members

Enjoy full use of the club's ground facilities, and may fly as passenger friends. No requirement to join GFA or RAAust. If a club member before 3 May 1998 can vote in club ballots.

5 Junior members

Defined as persons who have not yet reached the age of 18 years, or of any age if a full-time student (must hold a full-time student card from a recognised school or tertiary institution) or be a first or second-year Australian Apprentice. Conditions, rights and privileges as for flying members except where restricted by the Liquor Licencing Act.

6 Term members

Term membership may be for one month or three months. Must be a member of GFA or RAAus to fly. No voting rights.

7 Honorary members

Conferred on a person whose activities have been of benefit to the club, or with whom the club wishes to be associated. No subscription, no voting rights, other privileges as the Committee determines.

8 Life members

Conferred by members in a General Meeting for distinguished attainment or service to the club. No subscription is charged, but Life Members enjoy all rights and privileges of Flying members.